

Creative Homework – due in the week beginning 3rd April

You have the whole term to complete this homework and it is to be brought in on the last week of term to be shared with the rest of the class (week beginning the 3rd April).

Children need to create a new character for a Quentin Blake book. Think of Angelica Sprocket, Patrick or Mrs Armitage! You can draw your character by hand or on the computer, or make a model of them. Include a name and a description of your character and what they are like ☺

Enjoy!
