

Maths

- Using money – making amounts with different combinations of coins, adding and taking away money
- Reading scales in different increments and picking appropriate units to measure capacity, length and weight

RE /Philosophy for Children

- Learning about different religious celebrations and the foods involved
- Learning to question and discuss different concepts
- Listening and debating
- Any stories will be used to aid discussions about morals and beliefs in society.

Literacy

- Instructions
- Sense poetry
- Guided reading and comprehension
- Picture perfect extended writing
- Daily phonics lessons and spelling practise

Summer Term

Willow Class

April - May

Knowledge and Understanding

- History – The great fire of London
- Geography – the origins of particular foods throughout the world and being able to locate the continents they're from

PSHE

- Commitment – what it is and how to have it
- Safety around food and medicines
- British Values including individual liberty and rule of law

Creative

- Using food (potatoes etc.) to print and create patterns on different materials
- Looking at the work of Giuseppe Arcimboldo and creating portraits in the same style
- Sketching every day foods