Academic Year 2016/2017

Date: Friday 12th May 2017

SATs week is finally over. We all feel very proud of our Year 6 who have come to school early every morning for a special breakfast with Miss Bancroft and Mrs Wilson. They have all worked so hard, they certainly deserve a rest this weekend. Well Done!

I hope you like the new format for the gold Award—I thought it would be nice for you to know why teachers are proud of your children.

This weekend Good luck to the children who are competing in the Quad kids competition at Park House School.

Next week Wednesday The M&M theatre company are visiting us with their production of The railway Children. Please remember to send £1 to help pay for this fantastic experience.

Each class had their photograph taken. Please remember to bring back the proof and money by 18.05.17 if you wish to purchase it.

Speaking to others

I'm sad to say that this week I have had a number of complaints about the way in which some parents speak to their children and school staff. In school swearing, abusive and rude language WILL NOT be tolerated as it does not set a good example of how we want to teach your children how to respect and treat others. Please remember this on and around our site. Thank you
